

Parsons-Souders (Mon. Oct. 14) Parsons-Souders

Tall, graceful women, sometimes have ungainly figures. It is not always because they are tall and large—it is because they have not had or are not wearing the proper Corset.

This season we have selected from Warner's Rust Proof lines several new models that are practically fitted to the tall woman who ought to have a tall, staturesque, shapely figure, largely because of the height.

We guarantee these models not only to shape fashionably, but to give a comfortable fitting. Warner's guarantees to us, not only to shape and fit, but to outwear any other corset and not to rust, break or tear—all important in Corset Comfort. Price $1 to $3.

50 Women's Serge Dresses, $5 to $15

What Dressmaker would turn out such attractive little frocks as these for the money?

All the dresses are new and attractive. There are several styles, some with Robespierre collars, all with long sleeves. They are of serge of the finer sort.

Plenty of blues and black, brown, leather and Copenhagen.

One of the Things a Girl Calls "The Lin'it" is having to wear a last year's out-grown Coat. "Let sister have it!" she cries. Particularly if the sleeves hesitate as they get towards the wrist and come to a dead halt just at the point where they ought to turn up—this is really the most limited limit. Can't expect a girl to have much pride unless she has clothes that are up to what you want them to be!

Buy her a coat that evidences good style, good tailoring and see what happens—watch her expression, joyous spirit, happy, contented feeling. It's worth while.

Girls' Coats! Fully 300 ready—in the season's best materials and styles. 2 to 7 years and 6 to 16 years; prices $3 to $10 and $4 to $15 respectively.

Pretty Birthday Party.

Miss Ruth Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Rogers, of Meigs avenue, celebrated the eleventh anniversary of her birth by delightfully entertaining a party of her friends from 7 to 10 o'clock Saturday evening at her home.

Various games and amusements were engaged in by the guests among them being a Teddy Bear game, the winner's prize of which was captured by Maxwell Gaylord, and a peanut hunt, the winner of which, Miss Agnes Smith, received a prize. A big birthday cake decorated with eleven red candles was cut and Hurst Koblegard drew from it a favor entitling him to a pretty book. Refreshments were served at 10 o'clock. The house was prettily decorated for the happy occasion with palms and ferns.

To guests were Misses Mary and Alice Gaylord, Agnes and Genevieve Smith, Mary Reynolds, Ruth Souders, Catharine Swager, Martha Jarvis, Martha Maxwell, Jean Haynes, Adelaide Coleman, Agnes Clifford, Letitia Davis and Frances Clifford; Masters Richard, Maxwell and Charles Gaylord; Lawrence Souders, Despard Bailey, George Denham, Hurst Koblegard and Turner Wallis.

Covers were laid for Miss Edna Haymaker, the Misses Louise and Henrietta Bailey, Miss Lucy Dawson, Miss Genevieve Harrison, Misses Florence and Marjorie Acheson, Misses Lila and Mary Smith, Misses Nina and Alice Allen, Miss Mary Kelly, Miss Ionia Smith, Miss Frances Robinson and Miss Bertha Bland.

HAIR THAT GIVES FATHER TIME THE LAUGH

We are just about as old as we LOOK. People judge us, by the way we LOOK. The man or woman with grey hair is beginning to get in the "Old Timer's Class." This Twentieth Century does NOT want GREY hair—it wants the energy of Youth. The big things are being done by the YOUNGER generation.

There's a sort of "Has Been" look about those "Grey Hairs." There's always one to criticize and smile scornfully.

Father Time is a stern disciplinarian. Get the best of him. Give him the laugh. Do not be a "Has Been." It's unnecessary. Use HAY'S HAIR HEALTH.

Keeps You Looking Young.

The average mother finds sufficient annoyance and worry performing the ordinary duties in the rearing of a family, but the cares and anxiety are doubled when there is added to ordinary conditions that of weakened kidneys in a juvenile member of the family. How to cure it should be of untold value to Clarksburg mothers. Read this:

Mrs. S. F. Milstead, 216 Poplar St., Clarksburg, W. Va., says: "We have used Doan's Kidney Pills in our family with highly satisfactory results and consider them worthy of the strongest endorsement. One of our children suffered from backache and weak kidneys and we decided to try Doan's Kidney Pills in this case. We got a supply at the City Drug Store and after they were used, the pains disappeared, together with all the other difficulties."

OUR WAY STUDIO

Mrs. M. E. Barick, Photographer. 126 Fourth Street.

Art is all in the artist—not in the material. Any one may purchase first class material if they have the price, but they cannot all produce valuable and artistic results.

I study composition, light and shade from the old masters—have numerous copies of the most famous paintings hung in the art galleries of Europe. In fact, have spent several thousand dollars in acquiring my understanding of art photography as well as a number of years' of practical experience.

I wish to thank those who have so liberally patronized me in the past and cordially invite all to visit my studio and examine my work.

I have styles especially attractive for Xmas gifts.—Advertisement.
